Record of the Clubs.

Thirty thousand persons saw the final heats in the people's regatta at Philadelphia yester-day afternoon. The course was one and a half miles, and every condition was favorable to the contestants. In the four-oared shell race, when a half mile from the start, the Delaware Boat Club of Chicago was run into by a barge carrying 500 persons. The shell was demolished and the raters were pitched overboard, but none were hurt.

The Chicago crew was second at the time, and although the judges' boat whistled for the other contestants to return, they all kept on.

The event was declared no race because of the mishan to the Chicagons and will be reveal.

The other events included a 100-yard handicap, for juniors, won by Lacey Wells, with Cecil Cravke second. This was followed by a potato race, won by H. L. Pfliegar, club swinging by W. P. Ferguson, one-quarter of a mile run for boys, which resulted in a dead heat between Bowie Chipman and Willie Sima. The stilt race was won by Fitzhugh, sack race by Buchanan, wheelbarrow race was a tie between Fitzhugh and Grove, and the egg race was won by Buchanan.

crowd, who witnessed three rather uninteresting races, accompanied by the customary grows and kicks observable at the ordinary trotting and pacing meetings. The respective winners were so easily successful that the races were robbed of any real interest.

The match race between Sinsheimer's Gray Eagle and Sondheimer's Rochester was won easily by the former.

The results of the other races were as follows:
First race—2.32 class: trotting—Charles
